

WHY DEBT RULES OUR LIVES AND HOW TO RESIST IT

LIFE BEFORE
DEBT

SATURDAY 29 MARCH 2014

LIFE BEFORE DEBT

Dictator debts... Payday loans...
Third World debt... Austerity cuts... The Eurozone crisis...
Student debt... Vulture funds...

Six years on from the crash, the ranks of those imprisoned by debt are swelling in the UK and across the world.

For years, millions of people in the global South have been trapped in poverty by the rule of debt. Now across Europe our public services are being slashed and our economies restructured to pay for bankers' bailouts.

In the UK, as prices outstrip wages, families are turning to payday loans to get through the month, students face a lifetime of debt and the NHS is locked into 30-year contracts with parasitic companies profiting from the public purse.

Debt is at the centre of a broken economic system that is hurting ordinary people everywhere.

This free day-long conference will hear from global movements on the frontline of debt resistance, investigate the pervasive role of debt in our lives today, and discuss what collective action we can take to break the chains of debt in years to come.

SATURDAY 29 MARCH 2014

10am–6.30pm / Registration from 9.30am
School of Oriental and African Studies
Thornhaugh Street, Russell Square, London WC1H 0XG
Nearest tube: Russell Square

Sessions include:

Debt and development: What happened to the 'Third World' debt crisis? / Payday loans: an industry without mercy / Dictator debt and the Arab uprisings / Corporate contracts in the NHS: Britain's odious debts? / How vulture funds go in for the kill / Debt audits: how they work, and what they're good for / Student debt and the privatization of higher education in the UK / Debt myths and morality: why we pay debts we don't owe Plus art, music and more...

Speakers include:

Njoki Njehu Daughters of Mumbi, Kenya and Africa Jubilee South
Rowan Williams Former Archbishop of Canterbury
Jihen Chandoul Campaign to Audit Tunisia's Debt
David Graeber Author of Debt: The First 5,000 Years
Costas Lapavistas Professor of Economics, SOAS
Ann Pettifor Director, PRIME and author of Just Money
Andrew Ross Strike Debt activist and author of Creditocracy: The case for debt refusal
Andrew McGettigan Author, The Great University Gamble
Allyson Pollock Professor of Public Health & author of NHS Plc
Christina Laskaridis Corporate Watch and Greek debt audit campaign
Mossallem Mohammed Drop Egypt's Debt campaign

REGISTER NOW AT: jubileedebt.org.uk/lifebeforedebt

Organised by:

Contact Us:

020 7324 4722
info@jubileedebt.org.uk
@dropthe debt

This event has been organised with the assistance of the European Union. It is the sole responsibility of the Jubilee Debt Campaign, and can in no way be taken to reflect the views of the European Union